SIR JOHN HAWKINS'S GENERAL HISTORY OF THE SCIENCE AND PRACTICE OF MUSIC. Price 35s., bound in Two Volumes. Supplementary Volume of Portraits, 14s., in paper covers; 16s., bound in cloth.

IN the present age, when public attention is so extensively directed towards the study and practice of Music, it has been thought that a new edition of SIR JOHN HAWKINS'S valuable HISTORY OF MUSIC would prove peculiarly acceptable, as being by far the best history of the art extant. It was formerly a very scarce and expensive book, but the present price, 35s. bound in two volumes, places it within the reach of both amateur and professional musicians. The large subject of a History of Music, embracing heterogeneous matter, and the result of wide research, makes it a storehouse to which a definite clue is required to give ready access. This will be found in the new and compendious Indexes, which have been carefully compiled, and added to the present edition. The whole matter occupies more than 1000 large pages of close print, with more than 200 wood-cuts, and provides the material for many a long winter evening's amusement by their perusal.

“THE ONLY EDITION.”

THESE words are advertised with several works intended to compete with NOVELLO'S cheap editions. The statement appears to be at variance with truth, until careful reading shows that the words are an ellipsis for, the “only” [dear] edition, or some such peculiarity; but there is one meaning the Public may surely depend upon when “only” is used, viz.: that there is a cheap edition of NOVELLO'S, which it behoves them to see before purchasing any other.

It is probable, that shortly ALBRECHTSBERGER'S THEORETICAL WORKS will be advertised as the “only” edition, in two volumes, price 42s., although it may not be stated that it is the only English edition in which the examples are inconveniently separated from the letter-press; but the student (having learnt the meaning of “only”) should then look out for NOVELLO'S compact edition, with the examples properly inserted in the text, at about 3s. 6d. per volume, as it will then be ready, in the LIBRARY for the diffusion of MUSICAL KNOWLEDGE.

To the Institutions to whom the MUSICAL TIMES has been sent without charge.

For the last five years, it has been the practice to send this paper, free of charge, to every Mechanics' Institution, Lyceum, or Literary Athenæum in Great Britain, Ireland, and the Colonies, the existence of which could be authenticated. The list has numbered more than 812 Institutions.

A few very liberal Institutions in that time have become subscribers, and from many others we have had the thanks of the managers conveyed to us in very handsome terms; but we might suppose our gift has been of insignificant value in other quarters, because we have remarked that the Musical Times is not even mentioned in the list of periodicals furnished to their library or reading room. Sometimes we have thought that the omission might proceed from the circumstances of the list being made up from the cash payments, and that that which cost nothing had escaped attention—

"Too light winning, makes the prize light."

Now, although an individual subscription to the fortnightly papers (post-free) is only 5s., the aggregate cost for 812 is large, costing the proprietary £203 per annum. We have determined, on revising our list, to make the curtailment where it will be least missed, and so enable us to extend the distribution in more useful directions. We propose, therefore, in future only to send the Musical Times to such Institutions as express by letter their wish to receive it; and—while we shall not refuse it to any Institution whose want of funds should prevent the purchase—yet, from all those who can afford the small contribution of 5s. per annum, we shall hope to receive that amount in stamps for the ensuing year's papers.

The Secretary of every Institution will therefore be pleased, at his earliest convenience, to address a note to 69, Dean Street, Soho, London, in one of the following forms:—

Sir,—Send the Musical Times fortnightly for one year, directed to _____

for which 5s. are enclosed.

Or:—

Be pleased to put the name of the _____

on the list, to have the Musical Times free of cost, I undertaking that, if it be so sent, it shall be included in the list of periodicals furnished to our library or reading room.
